MEDICINAL.

PROMPT RELIEF comes to the woman suffering from any of the painful disorders and derangements peculiar to her sex. If she needs the help that is offered, Dr. Pierce's Female Prescription is the only medicine so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't benefit or cure, your money is returned.

Beautiful women know how much they owe to good health. If you wish to be beautiful, keep the natural functions of the body in proper state and you'll be healthy.

A train of disorders follows the derangement of the woman's functions. For nervous prostration, excitability, fainting spells, dizziness, spasms, convulsions, or "fits," this remedy relieves and cures.

Take it when you suffer from sleeplessness, headache and bearing-down sensations, for the prompt relief it imparts.

DENTISTRY.

IS IT WISE?

Is it wise to dismiss an uninvestigated statement by saying, "It isn't possible"? Is it fair?

People sneered at Fulton, laughed at Morse, scoffed at Edison. They think that good dentistry is necessarily high-priced, but the ocean steamer is here, the telegraph and the phonograph, so is scientific dentistry at moderate prices.

After the Legislators.

A letter from Farmwell to the Loudoun Enterprise says:
"I was sorry indeed that your last issue did not contain something about the 'good looks' of some of our representatives. However, I think I can live over it, if you will only come in your next issue with something that they have done which tends to the relief of the people. The writer does not think borrowing $12,000 will relieve them much. As a writer in last week's Mirror very truly said: 'We have a beautiful heritage now for public improvement, a State debt of about $20,000,000.'"

"If the Legislature of Virginia cannot relieve itself of this fever of extravagance it would be well for the people to relieve themselves of the Legislature. The present court house is an 'old land mark,' in moderately good repair, and in which sat as judges, Charles B. Tebb, Charles Ball and others under the new constitution, equal, the writer thinks, to any who are likely to wear the ermine shortly. At the bar where the Harrisons—Burr, Matt and Powell—John Janney and others who were certainly as well equipped as any who have or likely to succeed them. We can certainly stand the old court house until times get better. This $12,000 borrowing scheme does not promise anything but an increase in taxation. The game law promises nothing. The increase of the oyster fleet, costing the Commonwealth $25,000, promises the useless expenditure of public money. The bill to amend the code to increase the pay of members and officers of the General Assembly is another scheme to squander the public money. This promises great relief to the people. How about the modified free pass bill on railroads? Is this any legislation for the people? It simply amounts to wholesale squandering of public money, and an effort to throw the law making power of the State under direct obligations to corporations."

"The writer thinks what the people want is the Jackson bill, a bill which provides that the Commissioners of Revenue shall stamp all bonds, notes, money in every form and tax accordingly—then, and not till we have equalization of taxation will the agricultural interest be dealt fairly with."

ANSWERED INSULT WITH A WHIP—Miss Belle White, a Cumberland, Md., saleswoman, received a note Friday afternoon from J. Stern, a well-known clothing merchant, asking her to meet him in the evening and take a walk. Miss White answered that she would be at the appointed place on time. Then she bought a riding whip and informed her brothers that she was going to whip Stern.

Both young men accompanied her to the meeting place. When Stern came along Miss White cut him across the face, bringing blood. Her brothers then compelled Stern to stand while their sister lashed him unmercifully.

Saturday afternoon Stern swore out warrants for the lady and her brother Gus. Miss White had gone to Baltimore, but her brother was apprehended. She will be arrested as soon as she returns.
